Inaugural Eve Concerts Reflect 2 Moods

In contrast, the work played in the 2,450-seat cathedral by an orchestra of locally recruited musicians conducted by Leonard Bernstein is for the most ard Bernstein is for the most part a gentle, contemplative mass written by Joseph Haydn

By LINDA CHARLTON
Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—The differing moods of this inaugural eve could be heard in the sound of music tonight, with an official concert featuring the triumphant cannon of Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture" at the John F. Kennedy Center, and the drumrolls of Haydn's Massin Time of War at the Washington Cathedral.

The concert at the Kennedy center, one of three presented tonight at the center by the Inaugural Committee, was open to formally dressed ticketholders only, with a bonus of a candlelight dinner—Long Island duckling with wild rice and California wine—for those who spend $250 or more for their seats.

The concert at the Washing-Roger Wagner Chorale, and california wine—for those who spend $250 or more for their seats.

The concert at the Washing-Roger Wagner Chorale, and california wine—for the washing-land patriotic sung by the concert and patriotic sung by the concert and what most of the musicians felt that washing-land patriotic sung by the concert and patriotic sung by the concert and colored the Austrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes trian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes the Austrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes the Austrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes the Choice of the bombastic Tchain kovsky overture to close the concert had been the commit kovsky overture to close the Choice of the Daustrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes the Choice of the Austrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes the Choice of the Daustrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes (the Austrian Armies in Italy. It is sometimes (the McStelled the "Kettledrum" gram in 1970 when Mr. Nixon of the Choice of the Dresident's. He said the Westledrum" in 1970 when Mr. Nixon of the Mr. Ormandy of the McStelled the "Kettledrum" gram in 1970 when Mr. Nixon of the McMedal of Freedom, and the freeling the President would enjoy it." He said no one on the committee was aware of the historical background of the overture.

Mr. Ormandy said it had been chosen by its soloie; the intermission, the Grie spend $250 or more for their seats.

The concert at the Washington Cathedral, unofficial and free on a first-come, first-served basis, was called "a plea for peace" rather than a protest, but the choice of music alone made clear the counterpoint.

The Kennedy Center concert, played by the Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy.

Americana"—songs traditional and patriotic sung by the Meritage of Freedom," a recitation by Charlton Heston, the movie actor, of unspecified portions of the Declaration of independence, with a choral background.

Committee Chose Overture

A work by Vincent Persi-

played by the Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy, 16 of whose members had asked to be excused from performing, included the Tchaikovsky overture celebrating the rout of Napoleon's army from Moscow in the winter of 1812, surely the best-known orchestral work scored for cannon.

A Gentle Mass

Committee Chose Overture A work by Vincent Persidentification, specially commissioned chorus, specially commissioned for the concert, with Abraham Lincoln's second inaugural address as its theme, was withdrawn last week by the committee. Mr. Persichetti said he had been told this was done because the text might embarass Mr. Nixon.

r Chorale, and most of the musicians felt that most of the musicians felt that they could separate their professional commitments from the dictates of our consciences."

The soloists at the Washington Cathedral concert Patricia Wells, Gwendolyn Killebrew, Alan Titus and Michael Devlin — donated their serve. Devlin — donated their services: The members of the or-chestra, who a spokesman for the cathedral said were recruit-the cathedral said were recruited locally, were paid scale.

Dean Sayre, a grandson of President Wilson, has been outspoken in his opposition to United States policy in Vietnam. He recently led a peaceful march of protest against renewed United States bombing in North Vietnam, from the cathedral, which is in the northwest section of the city, to the White House.

west section of the city, to the White House.

The major antiwar demonstrations are scheduled for tomorrow, to coincide with the inauguration itself, but one group of protesters presented petitions, which they said had been signed by 50,000 persons, to a security guard at the White House this afternoon.

The petitions called for the immediate signing of the accord reportedly reached with North Vietnam in October. A black community group held another rally and protest in the late afternoon.

late afternoon.

See Washington Post 13 Jan 72 (Judith Martin) REston, SFChronicle 16 Jan 72 (A Sour Inaugural Note) SFChronicle 20 Jan 72 (Nixons' Night for Music) All this file.