

Take the Peace and Run

by Von Hoffman

Until the man got on the air and said the words, until he made the announcement that on the 19th hour of January 27, the guns would fall silent, there was a black, joking suspicion that he might have one more doublecross in him. He could have gotten on the tube to tell us North Vietnamese torpedo boats had attacked our destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin.

He didn't, so take the peace and run.
