begun to consider candidates for a pro-fessorship in international relations."

sence. When that expired he resigned, but his colleagues decided not to ac-the maximum two-year leave of ab-issinger Gives Up Harvard Posi sity officials he has no immediate A. Kissinger has told Harvard Univerto someone else, a university professor and they can give his teaching position plans to leave his White House post CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Henry partment of Kissinger's decision at a Prof. James Q. Wilson, chairman of Harvard's government department, informed the senior members of his de-

"The senior members of the depart-ment learned that Mr. Kissinger cancurrent assignment," Wilson said. not now make plans for leaving his special meeting Monday night. "Accordingly," he said, "they have

> The university has kept the position vacant since Kissinger became chief adviser to President Nixon four years said. ifications warrant review," Wilson candidates for the position whose qualthat must be met and there are other For several months the Government

Two weeks ago, Kissinger told newsmen, "What makes you think I would want to go back?"
When Kissinger left Harvard he took Department has been saying that Kissinger had only a short time to rejoin Harvard.

ago.
"The department has teaching needs prefer to him."

agreed last December that if Kissinger had not notified the department of his intentions to return by Feb., his job would be filled. we understand, however, that a vacan-cy cannot be held open indefinitely," Wilson said. him in this high esteem. Both he and Wilson said he and Kissinger had Those colleagues "continue to hold cept the resignation and to awhile.

colleagues that there was not then, and was not likely to be for some time, a lations whom the department would scholar in the field of international reprompted by the view of his former "This was an unusual action,