

President's Protection

Washington

Richard E. Keiser, a 39-year-old former Army intelligence and narcotics agent,** has been named special agent in charge of the Presidential protective detail of the Secret Service.

Keiser has been acting in the post since February when the former chief of the detail, Robert H. Taylor, was transferred to a new post. *

Associated Press

*See NYTimes 14 Feb 73, Philip Shabecoff, this file.

**See SF Examiner, 22 Jun 73, this file. In less than two months, 93 Navy and Marine personnel assigned to posts near Nixon have been transferred, allegedly for using marijuana; 35 from Washington ceremonial guard unit, 46 from Camp David, 12 from yacht Sequoia.