San Clemente Party of Stars For Brezhnev

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev will be the guest of honor tomorrow at a party around the pool at the Nixon home in San Clemente.

President and Mrs. Nixon have invited 150 other guests, who will include Gov. and Mrs. Ronald Reagan and several Hollywood stars. Among the stars will be Frank Sinatra, Bob Hope, Red Skelton, Cesar Romero and Walter Pidgeon.

Mariachi singers, wearing sombreros and Mexican costumes, and the U.S. Marine Corps orchestra will entertain at the party.

Nixon and Brezhnev planned to fly to San Clemente this afternoon aboard the presidential plane, the "Spirit of '76."

Brezhnev may fly to Los Angeles during the weekend to visit a museum exhibiting the collection of French impressionist paintings on loan from the hermitage museum in Leningrad.

Brezhnev will be in California until Sunday when he will return to Camp David, Md., for an overnight stop before leaving the United States for France Monday.
