Mail Overwhelmingly Against Senate Approval of Kissinger

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11—opposition, he said, came from while Henry A. Kissinger's nomination as Secretary of Total has aroused little opposition in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, mail from the public received by the committee in the last week has been overwhelmingly against Senate approval of Mr. Kissinger.

A committee staff member said that about 500 "anticonseriumation" letters had been resaid that about 500 "anticonseriumation" letters had been reserved in the last seven days compared with 10 messages his visits to China and the supporting the nomination of Soviet Union.

The staff member described most of the letters as "responsible" but said that some "hate" and "nut" mail had been received.

The staff member added that opposition was being raised by both "right-wingers and liberals." He said, "we're getting both ends of the political spectrum and all the way through it."

Winslow Wheeler, an aide to Senator's office had received about 100 leters and telephone calls opposing Mr. Kissinger for the continuation of the Vietnam war, Mr. Wheeler said a "significant portion" of opposition came from "consulted and the Communists" because of compared with 10 messages his visits to China and the Communists because of the Communists of the Liberty Lobby, an exterme right-wing organization, has asked to testify later this week on the nomination. Robert Bartell, a spokesman for the group, said that it would only the committee of Concerned Scholars for a Just World Order, has also requested an appearance before the committee.

Winslow Wheeler, an aide to Senator's office had received about 100 leters and telephone calls opposing Mr. Kissinger should not be confirmed because of his involvement in the Vietnam war and his dividuals and organizations have asked to testify. Saul H. Mendlovitz, a member of the Committee of Conditions have asked to testify. Saul H. Mendlovitz, a member of the Committee of Conditions have asked to testify. Saul H. Mendlovitz, a member of the Committee of Conditions have asked to testify