

By Margaret Gentry Associated Press

Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson yesterday spelled out for the first time a Justice Department policy on allow-ing national security wiretaps. In a letter to Senate For-eign Relations Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark ) Bishardson said that he

• "To obtain foreign intelli- | taps said to be necessary to gence information deemed es preserve national security. sential to the security of the United States.

• "Or to protect national security information against for-eign intelligence activities."

Richardson's statement was will not approve any applica-tion for electronic surveillance "To protect the nation against actual or potential at-tack or other hostile acts of a foreign power. "As ment policy on national secur-ity wiretaps since the Su-preme Court ruled a year ago that the government may not conduct domestic securitywire-taps without first obtaining a judicial warrant. However, the count the first delineation of govern-ment policy on national secu-obtion a statement clarifying wiretap procedures.

WIRETAP, From A1

The Attorney General said that he and Deputy Attorney General designate , William Ruckelshouse are supervising by the criteria of foreign

The issue arose during the Foreign Relations Committee's hearings on the nomina-tion of White House national security adviser Henry A. Kissinger to be Secretary State.

The committee questioned Kissinger's role in authorizing national security wiretaps on 17 individuals. Richardson told Fulbright he outlined the policy in order to fulfill, Kissinger's pledge to an intensive effort to set, up new standards for wiretaps in domestic criminal and na-tional security cases. About 100 wiretaps of both types are intelligence to all applications for wiretaps conducted with-out judical warrants.

See WIRETAP, A25, Col. 1

Richardson noted the difficultý in distinguishing be-tween domestic and foreign activities and said that he will "try scrupulously to follow the guidance and instruction guidance and instruction given to us by Congress and the courts, bearing in mind the importance of balancing individual privacy with the needs of national security." He contended, "I will con-tinue to attempt to insure that a genuine national security in-ferest is in fact involved a genuine national security in-terest is, in fact, involved whenever we invoke this power and that we operate within the limits set by Con-gress and the courts." Bichardson assured Ful

Richardson assured Ful-bright that the department is following the Supreme Court order requiring warrants for electronic surveillance to gather information for domes-tic security cases.