NYTURES. aried Groups Urge Senate Panel to Reject Kissinger

By BERNARD GWERTZMAN Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14—
The Senate Foreign Relations Committee was urged by a variety of political groups to-day to reject Henry A. Kissinger's nomination as Secretary of State for reasons ranging from his Vietnam policy to his Jewish background.

For nearly three hours, Mr. Kissinger was assailed for his policies, personality and ethnic WASHINGTON, Sept. 14day to reject Henry A. Kissinger's nomination as Secretary of State for reasons ranging from his Vietnam policy to his Jewish background.

For nearly three hours, Mr. Kissinger was assailed for his policies, personality and ethnic background with hardly a word spoken on his behalf. Ten witnesses, representing opposite sides of the political spectrum, were united on this occasion in their opposition to President of the Federation of American. in their opposition to President Nixon's national security ad-

Committee staff Committee staff members said that there had been no requests from groups to testify in favor of Mr. Kissinger's nomination. Mr. Kissinger was the only witness in the first three days of public hearings. His nomination has spurred a flow of mail to Congress reportedy running 50 to 1 against him, much of it from so-called "hae" groups. members

Only 3 Senators Present

Only three Senators were present for any part of the hearing, the last public session before the vote next week on before the vote next week on Mr. Kissinger's confirmation, which Senators expect to go in his favor.

The three Senators present were John J. Sparkman, Democrat of Alabama, who served as chairman; George D. Aiken, Republican of Vermont, and George McGovern, Democrat George McGovern, Democrat of South Dakota. They seemed more interested in getting the hearing over with than in rebutting the views expressed about Mr. Kissinger butting the views about Mr. Kissinger.

American people, secret and massive bombing, and deep involvement in the most brutal luse of armed violence against human beings in the post-World but feel a personal stake in the fortunes of Israel," the Youth Alliance believed that Mr. Kissinger's confirmation would not meet "the best interests of the majrity of white, gentile Americans."

The alliance described its goal as awakening "a sense of racial, cultural and national identity to replace the alienation, rootlessness and neo-liberal cosmopolitanism which now threaten the continued curring the Mamerican people, secret and massive bombing, and deep involvement in the most brutal use of armed violence against human beings in the post-World War II era are sufficient reason to deny his vonfirmation," If there were a Nuremberg trial today," Professor Medlovitz said, "Mr. Kissinger would face charges as a war criminal."

Joseph H. Crown, co-chairman of the lawyers committee on American Policy Towards Vietnam, asked the committee al cosmopolitanism which now threaten the continued survival of the nation and the race."

The Rev. Douglas Moore, chairman of the Black United Front, said that Mr. Kissinger in African affairs and because ate opposition to the Adminis- Wednesday.

"there is not one black in a tration's lawless and ruthless Others who testified against distinction."

But Mr. Small said that because Mr. Kissinger was Jewish, "we believe it is imperative that Dr. Kissinger should publicly renounce all Zionist claims that he has any ties, emotional or philosophical or political, to the foreign state of Israel."

Mr. Kissinger has alread.

Indochin Policy Assailed

Democrat

"We oppose his confirmation
hey seemed because of his moral unfitness for the office."

"Illicit wiretapping, deception of Congress and of the American people, secret and massive hombing and deep inwas "a functional racist" be to reject Mr. Kissinger "as a tee on Tuesday, with full Sencause of his lack of interest dramatic demonstration of Senate approval that day or on William A. Small, president of the Federation of American-Arab Organizations, said that "the anti-Semitic and extreme man who has demonstrated his diplomatic skill with ability and distinction."

But Mr Small said that be-the Administration gave as-

Mr. Kissinger returns to testify in private session on Monday morning, and his confirmation is expected to be Mr. Kissinger has alread y day morning, and his confirtestified that he will not permit his Jewish background to matter than the policies of t

Mr. Kissinger were Col. Curtis
B. Dall, chairman of the Board of Policy of Liberty Lobby;
John D. Hemenway, of the National Association of Pro-America, and former Sanaton