

Date of Nixon trip to Europe, originally scheduled for October or November, is now uncertain; aides say Nixon plans to concentrate on domestic problems until Congress recesses, so trip may be put off until next year.

Earlier, "senior staff members" had said Nixon would be making more public appearances, but none is scheduled, and plans have been called off for promised appearance at dedication of Fort Worth-Dallas airport this weekend.