

JUN 28 1974

AD
Nixon Chooses
SF Chronicle
No. 2 Man for
Treasury Dept.

Washington

President Nixon's selection of Stephen S. Gardner, Philadelphia banker, to be deputy Treasury secretary was announced yesterday by the White House.

Subject to Senate confirmation, Gardner, 52, will succeed William E. Simon, who moved from the No. 2 post to Treasury secretary on the resignation of George Shultz.

Gardner, a native of Wakefield, Mass., and a graduate of Harvard University, is board chairman of Girard Trust Bank, Philadelphia.

United Press