

Another New White House?

Reports from Washington yesterday indicated President Nixon is interested in still another retreat, beside the presidential homes at Camp David, Key Biscayne and San Clemente. This one is a 30-room summer home on a beach at Assateague Island, Md., formerly owned by Thomas McCabe, a Philadelphia supporter of Mr. Nixon. The house is described as a "Maine-styled hunting lodge," with four wings and at least 14 bedrooms.

—UPI Photo