

Agents Tell Plotting by U.S. Maoists

Washington [AP]

Two undercover agents for the FBI testified yesterday that they infiltrated a Maoist revolutionary group that planned a rock-throwing demonstration against President Nixon in San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Goff of Lemoore, Kings county, told the House internal security committee that members of the Revolutionary Union were responsible for the incident a week before the 1970 elections.

.....