Huntley Denies Quotation In Life About the President	and our tendency to make monarchs out of them.”
BOZEMAN, Mont., July 20 (AP)—Chet Huntley, the news-caster, asserted Monday that Life magazine incorrectly quoted him as saying the fact that Richard M. Nixon was President “frightens me.”	“But that came out in print to the effect that I was afraid of just Mr. Nixon,” Mr. Huntley said in a letter to Walter A. Secor, publisher of The Bozeman Chronicle, which today published an article regarding the letter.
Mr. Huntley said his actual statement to Thomas Thompson, a Life writer, was that he “worried about all Presidents of the U. S.—whether they will stay healthy, whether they can stand the strain, their power, the decisions they make,	He also denied he had said “The shallowness of the mar— President Nixon — overwhelms me.” In New York, a spokesman for Life declined immediate comment, pointing out that neither Mr. Huntley nor the National Broadcasting Company had complained to the magazine.
