

From column by Jack Anderson:

Nixon's brother - President Nixon's brother Edward, a Navy helicopter pilot, has been telling friends this story about the phone call he got from his brother after he rescued two girls from Puget Sound in a Navy chopper not long ago. "I called to congratulate you," said the President. "That's funny," said Ed. "I rescued someone a few years ago and the President didn't call me then."