

Seals of Approval

AP Wirephoto

Pat Nixon and Judy Agnew stood proudly yesterday in front of the needlework seals of their husband's offices, which they created. The official government guest residence, Blair House, is currently exhibiting the needlework efforts of wives of Cabinet members. Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Agnew wore beribboned scissors and pin cushions —the reward for their efforts.