

Wife of Nixon Cousin Forming Group of Poor

GRASS VALLEY, Calif., April 1 (UPI) — Mrs. Anna V. Milhous, whose husband is a first cousin of President Nixon, has established a 40-member welfare rights organization to fight "abuses of poor people."

Mrs. Milhous, 48 years old, who is crippled by arthritis, and her husband, Phillip, 56, who suffers a heart ailment, received national attention last year when she spoke out against proposed cutbacks in federally financed legal aid to the poor.

Mr. Milhous received $182 a month in Social Security disability benefits. His wife received $115 a month in Social Security, plus welfare, she said.

Mrs. Milhous said in a telephone interview that the new "low-income welfare rights organization of Nevada County" that she was founding was aimed at "negotiating" improvements with the county welfare department.
