

Woman Power

AP Wirephoto

President Nixon, with one hand tucked in a pocket and the other raised in a clenched fist, was not preaching revolution yesterday. He was merely giving a little pep talk to the White House secretarial staff while posing with them in the rose garden.