

James Lynn H.U.D. Chief; Morton Stays at Interior

by Linda Charlton

Washington, Dec. 5 -

Mr. Nixon, who returned yesterday from a four-day stay at his Key Biscayne, Fla., residence, plans to remain at the White House tonight and through tomorrow, Mr. Ziegler said.

Last night was only the sixth that Mr. Nixon spent at the White House since his re-election. He has spent most of his time at Camp David, in Thurmont, Md., where he is expected to return later this week.
