Among the wispiest topics of conversation in Washington this week has been the smoking of Mrs. Richard M. Nixon. On Tuesday night, she smoked a cigarette in a restaurant after dining with the President and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Eisenhower. Mrs. Helen Smith, the First Lady's press secretary, said it was indeed unusual for Mrs. Nixon to smoke, that she probably does not inhale and that the President is believed to smoke cigars once in a while.
