

White House Says a Nixon Resignation is Not Under Study

by John Herbers

San Clemente, Calif., July 5 - The White House maintained today its position that President Nixon was not considering resigning because of the Watergate disclosures.

.....

He has been in seclusion here since June 22, rarely venturing outside the Presidential compound. Last night, he and his family drove to the San Clemente Inn for dinner and earlier he took a short drive outside the compound with Charles G. Rebozo, his businessman friend.

.....