

SF Chronicle JUL 25 1973

Another Blow

Sacramento

President Nixon's former law office in southern California has been rejected as a state historical landmark.

The request was rejected by the California Historical Landmarks Advisory Committee because the Orange County structure did not meet the criteria of "state-wide impact and importance."

Associated Press
