

Julie's Thanks

UPI Telephoto

Julie Nixon Eisenhower appeared at a building site in Jacksonville, Fla., yesterday to thank the construction workers there for their support of her father. On a 21st floor girder, workmen had painted "We Support President Nixon." Mrs. Eisenhower said she put a picture of the sign on her father's pillow. She said she's certain the workmen's sign gave the President a boost.