

A Denial on Nixon Fund

Washington

The White House denied yesterday that President Nixon had a $1 million investment portfolio.

ABC News reported Monday [22 Oct] that an unidentified witness from Miami had alleged to Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox's staff that Mr. Nixon had a "private investment fund" administered through a bank owned by the President's friend, Charles G. (Bebe) Rebozo.

Associated Press