

A Political Poser

In 1952, congressional candidate William S. Mailliard posed with the GOP standard-bearers, Dwight Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon. Proving again that nothing is as constant as change, the proposed caption for the picture, provided to The Chronicle by the Mailliard for Congress Citizens Committee, had attached to it this advice: "Note: If possible, please delete Nixon from picture to throw greater emphasis on Eisenhower." The picture did not then appear in The Chronicle — either with or without the then Senator Nixon.
