

A Beauty Who Uses Sex

By Mary Daniels

The Capricorn woman, whom you can spot by her big round eyes, wants money, but for status purposes.

"This is really the power-behind-the-throne type of woman," astrologer Katherine de Jersey says.

"She may appear to be casual, but she knows exactly what she's doing, despite her sexy little-girl look. At the extreme she's calculating. She's ruled by Saturn, the cold, crystalline planet, and she's turned on by the cold, hard metals of silver and gold.

"She often marries again and again for security," our astrologer says, "and then wants out when she finds she doesn't have love. You won't find a Capricorn woman marrying a poor man.

"This is the money sign. She either marries it, inherits it, or builds it up. Often a Capricorn woman tries to climb up via the bedroom. She will do anything to achieve her ends, and she can be promiscuous.

Cool in the inner core of her personality, "Capricorn manages glamour, but not magnetism. Grooming is done for effect, like a business," says Katherine.

"She uses sex, like a Virgo does," the astrologer continues, and says that Charo, the wild Spanish bombshell wiggling it up on talk shows, is a typical Capricorn woman. She's married to Xavier Cugat, also a Capricorn; "So neither one is fooling the other," our astrologer says.

"Capricorn often marries an older man." But while Cancer does it for Oedipal reasons, Capricorn does it because "he's the guy who has the bucks and can give her the chance."

And while she looks like a hot number, don't expect her to be one. She's the matriarch, steely with inner strength.

"Leo is a good man for Capricorn," Miss de Jersey says. "He wants success for his ego and likes a glamorous woman around. The net result is good.

"You'll often find Capricorn and Aries together because he, too, wants to be first."

The Capricorn woman has been going through hell lately, our astrologer explains, because Uranus has been in her tenth house, doing dirt to what is most important, her standing in the eyes of the world.

"Saturn is going to make for more troubles, delays, and disappointments for another two years, especially through the mate," Miss de Jersey says.

"If a Capricorn marries in these next two years, she will really be taking on responsibilities, and it will turn out to be a duty marriage," which she won't like at all.
