

NYTimes

NIXON

MAR 27 1975

"A gripping book. . . . He brilliantly dissects Nixon's methods and personality, analyzing with wry irony and telling sarcasm the devastating . . . contradictions between what Nixon said and what the facts turned out to be."
—Los Angeles Times

"MANKIEWICZ BRINGS it all back home . . . this is a book with insight, a thoughtful history right on the heels of events that will keep historians busy for hundreds of years."
—The Denver Post

... "fresh and provocative . . . uniquely extensive review."
—Norwich Bulletin

"... you can put your chips on Mr. Mankiewicz for this particular story because he comes clean . . ."
—Herbert Mitgang, The New York Times

"An indispensable, chronological, and institutional guide to the end-game of the most nearly successful attempt upon this Republic by its highest servants in its history."

—Washington Star

30,000 first printing sold out!
$8.95

Frank Mankiewicz
U.S. v. Richard M. Nixon
The Final Crisis

QUADRANGLE/THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK CO.

10 East 53rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10022