

AP Wirephoto

Anniversary

Former President Nixon and Mrs. Nixon greeted a friend outside a Mexican restaurant in San Juan Capistrano, near their home in San Clemente. The dinner Wednesday night marked the Nixons' 38th wedding anniversary. They were guests of their daughter Julie and her husband, David Eisenhower. Nixon had the 'presidential choice,' assorted Mexican foods, while Mrs. Nixon ate prime ribs. It was her first public appearance since she was in a hospital last month with a viral infection.