P.O.W. Letters Brough by 2, in Hanoi During Raid

By SAM POPE BREWER

Two American lawyers who were in Hanoi during the American attempt last weekend to On the raid early Saturday

The two lawyers, Peter Weiss and Morton Stavis, were invited to North Vietnam as representatives of the Lawyers Committatives of the Lawyers Commit-tee on American Policy Toward Vietnam, of 38 Park Row. They left Nov. 8 and returned on Sunday.

They said at a news confer-ence at 777 United Nations Plaza that they had not seen any prisoners

Plaza that they had not seen any prisoners.

The lawyers said they had been told by Premier Pham Van Dong that Hanoi would order an immediate cease-fire when the United States announced a definite date for final withdrawal from Vietnam.

They were also told that

They were also told that withdrawal must include an United States air raid on Hanoi, Sharon Abbott and Mrs. Sandie end to support for the present but they did not see any results. Dennison.

were in Hanoi during the American attempt last weekend to rescue prisoners of war said here yesterday that they had brought back letters from 320 of the known 339 prisoners.

The two lawyers, Peter Weiss and Morton Stavis, were invited

The Saigon Government and free general elections.

Two Wives Hail Attempt Two Wives Hail Attempt WELLFLEET, Mass., Nov. 24 (AP)—The attempted rescue of today that the rescue attempt today by two wives of later that there had been allown in North Vietnam, Mrs.

Two Wives Hail Attempt WELLFLET, Mass., Nov. 24 (AP)—The attempted rescue of today that the rescue attempt today by two wives of later that there had been allown in North Vietnam, Mrs.

Saigon Government and free general elections.

Two Wives Hail Attempt WELLFLET, Mass., Nov. 24 (AP)—The attempted rescue of today that the rescue attempt today by two wives of later that there had been allown in North Vietnam, Mrs.

She is chairman of the board of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia

Missing in Southeast Asia.

Veteran Suspects Murders WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP) —Herbert R. Rainwater, com-mander of the Veterans of Forreign Wars, said today that he was convinced "the Communists have deliberately murdered some of our men."