Mark Lane, as quoted by Paul Eberle:

"John Van Dyke, who is known as the authority on treatment of American prisoners in Hanoi - that is to say, he is the only person who has interviewed all nine of the prisoners who've returned ... - has said that the American prisoners of war in Hanoi are being treated better than any prisoners of war on any side, in any war in the last hundred years. Which means better than WE have ever treated any of our prisoners of war ... "
