Intelligence reports — The CIA has quietly investigated the strange report that 187 American war prisoners would be flown out of Hanoi on a chartered Scandinavian Airlines plane. The investigation has established that a West German travel agent negotiated with the airline for the plane. Conclusion: anti-American elements were responsible for the cruel hoax . . . Joseph Sisco, the State Department's Middle East negotiator, came back from Israel wringing his hands. He could get nowhere, he reported, with Prime Minister Golda Meir. The former school marm dominated the discussions, he said, leaving nothing for Foreign Minister Abba Eban and Defense Minister Moïse Dayan to say. It isn't likely, added Sisco, that the old lady will relent . . . The U.S. has a secret understanding with Red China not to oppose its admission to the United Nations. In return, the Red Chinese have agreed not to try to overthrow Chiang Kai-shek by force.

Sonenshein's ships — Rear Adm. Nathan Sonenshein, the Naval Ship Systems commander, has asked us politely whether we are getting classified documents. The problem-plagued, $3 billion program is not equal sweetness, we don't know. Meanwhile, the admiral's private message + explain answer memo
