

NYTimes, Max Frankel, Peking

26 Feb 72

..... The President and the Premier met privately for about an hour before the banquet, although they had originally planned on three hours. There was no explanation for this except the unofficial comment of an American spokesman that both men had much work to do and agreed to change the schedule. ....