
259 Letters From POWs

New York

Journalist Seymour Hersh brought 259 letters from American prisoners of war back from North Vietnam, the Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam announced yesterday.

Cora Weiss, the committee's chairman, said the Rev. Daniel Berrigan would mail the letters to the families of the prisoners. She said they are the third delivery of letters from POWs since January.

Hersh, whose stories brought to public attention the massacre at My Lai, recently returned from a trip to North Vietnam.
