SAIGON — (AP) — The chairman of the "Remember the Pueblo Committee" said today that unless President Nixon secures the release of some U.S. prisoners held by the Vietnamese Communists within 30 days a brigade of American Vietnam veterans and foreign mercenaries will make raids on small POW camps to free prisoners.

Transfers

The Rev. Paul Lindstrom told a newsman a force of 118 men—including 13 mercenaries from Britain, France and Belgium — is ready to go into action within four to six weeks of an order calling them together. They include veterans of fighting in the Congo, Algeria and Malaya, he said.

Lindstrom said he has learned that 64 U.S. military personnel have been transferred from Communist custody in Laos to internment in China since October. Some are on a collective farm near the Laotian border, he said.

Lindstrom said the Douglas MacArthur brigade, formed in January 1971, has drawn up plans to raid small POW camps.

Either-Or

"Either Mr. Nixon use the well trained military power at his disposal, acting on information available through his intelligence sources, to get U.S. prisoners out or the Douglas MacArthur brigade, with its limited resources, intelligence and personnel, will get the job done."

Lindstrom is a nondenominational clergyman from Prospect Heights, Ill.
