

See also story by Bernard Gwertzman, "Nixon Is Still Weighing Another Troop Reduction," NYTimes this date, filed Nix Ad:

Washington - a furor developed over reports from Paris that Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the chief Vietcong negotiator, had sent a letter to members of Congress urging them to use their constitutional powers to end American involvement in Vietnam.

Special to The New York Times

PARIS, April 24—In her letter of all members of Congress, Mrs. Binh has offered "democratic" and "free" elections to a future "neutral" government in Saigon in connection with a timetable for the evacuation of all American forces.

The letter, which pledged guarantees for the safe return of American war prisoners, also bitterly denounced President Nixon's Vietnam policies.

The copies of the letter, according to a statement here, were sent to Washington April 20.

The letter charged that President Nixon was going "even farther than Mr. Johnson" by ordering B-52's to bomb Hanoi, Haiphong and other populous areas of North Vietnam."

Deputy press secretary, White House, describes Mrs. Binh's action as "presumptuous," "arrogant."