MARILYN BECK'S HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Director Mark Robson is rushing "Limbo" into release. The Universal film completed shooting in Miami, Florida, last week. It's the story of prisoner-of-war wives who question some of our government's policies in statements so bitter that the film was denied Pentagon approval and co-operation. Robson wants it in the theaters before any news developments outdate its story line.

For all our sakes — and most particularly our POWs and their families — may that story be outdated soon!
