KISSINGER IS ON WAY TO 4TH PEKING VISIT

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, June 15—Henry A. Kissinger, President Nixon's adviser on national security, left by plane tonight on his fourth journey to Peking.

Administration officials reported that the diplomatic deadlock in the Vietnam peace negotiations was certain to be a major topic in his discussions with the Chinese leaders.

Agreement on the date of the trip, officials said, was reached "some 10 days ago" through special diplomatic channels, presumably the United States and Chinese embassies in Paris.

"They agreed on the date before the Chinese accused us Monday of provocations by bombing too close to their border, and they did not rescind the invitation subsequently," a ranking official said.

Officials acknowledged that Washington had been informed in advance of the current trip to Hanoi by President Nikolai V. Podgorny of the Soviet Union, but they refused to agree to suggestions that the Kissinger and the Podgorny travels might be part of a concerted effort to settle the Indochina war.
