

Jack Anderson says Ho Chi Minh "was pounded out about a peace settlement" by Kissinger, who sent two French friends, Herbert Marcovich and Raymond Aubrac, to meet him. Ho received them 24 Jul 67.

On Marcovich and Aubrac, see article by David Landau, Ramparts Oct 72, filed POWs.