NEW YORK — (UPI) —

Five Americans will leave for North Vietnam next Wednesday to return three U.S. prisoners of war to the United States, two members of the group have announced.

Cora Weiss and David Dellinger said the delegation would enter Hanoi Sept. 16 and return with the prisoners by Sept. 27.

Besides Mrs. Weiss and Dellinger, both anti-war activists, the group will include Chaplain William Sloan Coffin of Yale. The other two members of the delegation will be announced later.
