

SEP 29 1972

Nixon and Kissinger

Meet

Washington SFChronicle
President Nixon returned from a West Coast campaign tour last night for a private meeting with Henry A. Kissinger on his latest negotiations in Paris on a Vietnam settlement.

Kissinger, the President's chief foreign policy adviser and personal emissary for secret talks with Hanoi's top negotiators, returned from Paris Wednesday night amid worldwide rumors — denied by both sides — that a settlement was near.

United Press

27 SEP