

A Mission

To POWs

SFChronicle
New York

Jane Hart, wife of Senator Philip M. Hart, (Dem-Mich.) and two poets left last night for Hanoi where they plan to deliver letters to American prisoners of war and visit North Vietnamese health care facilities and schools.

The trip was arranged by the Committee of Liaison, the anti-war organization which arranged for the release of three POWs last month. No POW releases were connected with Mrs. Hart's trip, however.

Traveling with Mrs. Hart are poets Muriel Rukeyser of New York and Denise Levertov of Boston.
