

h lbylqyyvryyr
Indochina-at-a-Glance 270
by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON - It appeared increasingly certain that the peace plan agreed to by Hanoi and Washington would not be signed on Tuesday, as demanded by the North Vietnamese. Presidential aide Henry Kissinger, who said a final meeting was necessary to iron out details, was reported still in the capital.

BUDAPEST - North Vietnam's spokesman in Paris, Nguyen Thanh Le, was quoted by the Hungarian Communist newspaper Nepszabadsag as saying Hanoi decided to disclose the secret peace agreement as a means of forcing the United States to sign it this Tuesday.

NEW YORK - The New York Times quoted South Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Van Lam as saying that North Vietnam's nine-point peace plan was unacceptable to Saigon. He said his government would not accept a cease-fire agreement that does not provide for withdrawal of all North Vietnamese forces from the South and reestablishment of the demilitarized zone.

SAIGON - Viet Cong forces attacked with increased intensity in an apparent campaign to force the Nixon administration to sign the cease-fire agreement Tuesday. The Saigon command reported 138 shelling, terror and ground attacks in South Vietnam during the 24-hour period that ended at dawn Sunday.

SAIGON - The National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong, issued a radio broadcast appealing to South Vietnamese people and soldiers and to the Soviet Union and China to demand that the United States sign the agreement and end the fighting.

PEKING - Sir Alec Douglas-Home, British foreign secretary, arrived in the Chinese capital for talks that are expected to include the problems of peacemaking and peacekeeping in Vietnam.

1950pES 10-29