

Haig Arrives in Saigon

Saigon

President Nixon's special emissary, General Alexander M. Haig, Jr., arrived in South Vietnam this morning to brief President Nguyen Van Thieu on the peace negotiations.

Haig is expected to spend one day in Saigon, with side trips to Phnom Penh, Vientiane and Bangkok.

Associated Press