

'Grounded' In Hanoi

Vientiane, Laos

American folk singer Joan Baez and her anti-war companions in Hanoi will not be home for Christmas because of bomb damage to the Hanoi airfield, it was reported here yesterday.

A spokesman for the ground service supplying the Soviet airline Aeroflot said the plane expected to fly them back to Moscow Saturday has been canceled and there is no other Aeroflot flight until next Saturday.

The plane, due to fly into Hanoi Saturday from Moscow via Vientiane, was held up in Rangoon because of damage to the Hanoi landing strip, the spokesman said. At first it was thought the flight might be made yesterday, but Hanoi reported the runway could not be repaired within 24 hours, so the Aeroflot plane was ordered back to Moscow.

United Press
