

Dr. Goodlett Leaves for Hanoi Visit

Dr. Carlton Goodlett, publisher of the black community newspaper Sun Reporter here, left Paris for Hanoi yesterday with four other persons on a private peace mission.

The five are members of the World Peace Council. The private organization, headquartered in Helsinki, has been involved in carrying letters from American prisoners of war to their families and in 1971 held a disarmament meeting in Moscow.
