A POW Renews His Vows

San Antonio, Tex.

Returning POW Captain Johnnie Ray and his wife Dorothy renewed their marriage vows last night at a military chapel here.

The best man was Sergeant Ken Wallingford of Austin, Tex., whose "cage" was next to Ray's in the Viet Cong prison camp from which both were released last week, military officials here said.

Ray's 22-year-old wife wanted the ceremony to be public. After some consultation, the military consented to her wishes.

"She felt as though she would never see him again," said Colonel Joseph Israeloff of the days when Ray, 25, of Pauls Valley, Okla., was listed as missing in action in April, 1972.
