

Prisoners To Be Freed By Viet Cong

Washington

Here are the names of 27 U.S. servicemen and five of the seven civilian prisoners of war provided by the Pentagon to be released by the Viet Cong.

A State Department spokesman said the names of two Filipinos would be released by the Philippine government.

ARMY

Anderson, John T., Sergeant, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Astorga, Jose M., Specialist Fifth Class, Oakland, Calif.; Baird, Bill A., Sergeant, Wooster, Ohio; Etmueller, Harry L., Sergeant, Pleasantville, N.J.; Flora, Carroll E., Jr., Sergeant First Class, Brunswick, Maine; Frank Martin S., Sergeant, Belleville, N.J.; Gouin, Donat J., Sergeant, Providence, R.I.; Harker, David N., Sergeant, Lynchburg, Va.; Henry, Nathan B., Sergeant, Franklin, N.C.; Kerns, Gail M., Sergeant, Bellefontaine, Ohio and Leopold, Stephen R., Captain, Milwaukee, Wis.

Also Lewis, Robert, III, Specialist Sixth Class, Houston, Tex.; McMurray, Cordine, Sergeant First Class, Detroit, Mich.; Miller, Roger A., Chief Warrant Officer, Hopewell Junction, N.Y.; Newell, Stanley A., Staff Sergeant, Peakin, Ill.; O'Connor, Michael F., Chief Warrant Officer, Warren, Mich.; Perricone, Richard R., Sergeant, Uniondale, N.J.; Pfister, James F. Jr., Sergeant, Indianapolis, Ind.; Rose, Joseph III, Sergeant, Morgantown, W. Va.; Sooter, David W., Chief Warrant Officer, Vallejo, Calif.; Thompson, Dennis L., Sergeant First Class, Portland, Ore., and Ziegler, Roy E. II, Chief Warrant Officer, Springfield, Ill.

Marine Corps

Budd, Leonard R. Jr., Sergeant, Lynn, Mass.; Burgess, Richard G., Sergeant, Olympia, Wash.; Cius, Frank E. Jr., Staff Sergeant, Cheektowaga, N.Y.; Dibernardo, James V., Captain, Syracuse, N.Y., and Dearing, John A., Staff Sergeant, Nashville, Tenn.

AMERICAN CIVILIANS

Clodeon Adkins, captured in Hue in Feb. 1, 1968, employed by Pacific Architects and Engineers; Lawrence James Stark, Department of Navy civilian, captured in Hue, Feb. 1, 1968; Michael Dennis Benge, employed by the Agency for International Development, captured Feb. 8, 1968, in Ban Me Thuot.

GERMAN CIVILIANS

Bernhard J. Diehl; Monika Schwinn.

Associated Press