

An 8-Year POW Divorced

San Diego

Air Force Major Kile Berg, 33, a prisoner of war in North Vietnam nearly eight years, is being divorced by his wife, Elizabeth Ann, 30. It was at least the tenth POW divorce to come to light.

Mrs. Berg, after filing for dissolution of marriage, was awarded $500-a-month temporary support by Superior Court Judge Jack R. Leavitt on Thursday.

In a declaration he filed in court, the flyer alleged his wife wasted community assets on frivolous expenses while he was a prisoner.

Of the $500 Levitt ordered Berg to pay, $150 a month was for temporary support of Mrs. Berg and $175 a month was for support of each of two children, 10 and 11 years old. Mrs. Berg won custody of the children.
