

transcribed from tape

(Al Helms reporting on arrival of POWs at Travis Air Force base.)

.....

The spokesman for the group was Air Force Colonel Theodore Guy of Tucson, Arizona. Col. Guy said it was particularly heartwarming that his first stop in the continental United States was California, "the home," as he put it, "of our beloved President." "The President's courage," Col. Guy commented, "to take the bull by the horns last December is the reason we are here today."

.....