

MAR 21 1973

SFChronicle MAR 21 1973

2 Missing Navy Flyers Now Listed as POWs

Washington

Two Navy flyers formerly listed as missing in action are now carried as prisoners of war, the Pentagon said yesterday.

They are Commander Harley Hall of Vancouver, Wash., and his radar man Lieutenant Commander Philip Kientzler, shot down over northern South Vietnam a few days before the cease-fire went into effect January 27.

The change marked the first time Americans formerly carried as missing became POWs.

Associated Press