WASHINGTON, March 22 (UPI)—President and Mrs. Nixon have invited all United States prisoners of the Vietnam war to spend a day at the White House on May 24.

The deputy White House press secretary, Gerald L. Warren, said the President and other White House officials would hold foreign policy briefings for the returned prisoners and Mrs. Nixon would give a reception for the wives of the former prisoners.

In the evening a dinner and entertainment are planned for the group on the South Lawn of the White House.

The last group of P.O.W.'s is scheduled for release by next Wednesday, and at that time more than 550 will have returned.
